FOR SALE.

TO GRAZIERS.

In pursuance of the last will and testament of General David Forman, deceased, will be exposed to sale, at public vendue, (on the premises) on Wednesday the 25th day of October next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day,

THAT very valuable FARM and PLANTATION, lying on the Long Marsh in Queen Anne's county, state of Maryland, containing about five hundred acres, about fifteen miles from Chester-town, six from Church hill, and twelve from the head of Chester.

This property is an object of very great speculation, particularly to any person in the grazing line, and in fact to any person wishing to vest their money in lands. There is a very large proportion of said farm laid down in timothy, and will cut grass sufficient, I doubt not, to pay a neat profit of 500 dollars a-year. There are also about twenty acres more cleared and fit to lay down in grass; and what renders it more valuable is, that when once the timothy is well set, it will last any person's life time: And what is called the bed of the Marsh, (of which there is a considerable part belonging to this farm) the soil is from four to six feet deep, of a black rich loom, and will average from two and an half to three tons of timothy an acre; and for two years past all the hay which could be spared from the farm, has sold at the stack for five pounds a ton. The arable land is calculated for wheat, rye, Indian corn, and particularly for what is called kite-foot or bright tobacco; it is well timbered, and contains maple swamps, that when cleared, will make meadows equal to any on the farm.

Any person wishing to purchase, can view the premises on application to Mr. Stephen Forman, on said farm. The conditions of sale will be, one half the purchase money on the first day of January next, and the remainder on the first day of May following.

WILLIAM G. FORMAN,
Surviving Executor.

By JAMES KINSEY, Esq.
Chief Justice of the supreme court of New-Jersey.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT upon application to me by Joseph P. Minnick, and John W. Bloomfield for themselves, by John W. Bloomfield in right of Ann his wife, William Bullus, John Moore, in the right of his wife Mary, John Bullus and Ruth Bullus, who claim an undivided sixth part of all that tract of land situate, lying and being in Springfield, Burlington county, containing eleven hundred and eighty-eight acres and a half of an acre or thereabouts, formerly devized by Mary Ludlam to Francis Bullus, who by his last will and testament devised the same tract to William Bowser, and John Turner in trust for Samuel Bullus his son in fee, which said Samuel Bullus by his deed bearing date on or about the 5th day of March 1796, conveyed the same to his children Francis Bullus, and the same Ann Bloomfield, formerly Ann Bullus, William Bullus, Mary Bullus, now Mary Moore, John Bullus and Ruth Bullus, I have nominated and appointed Job Lippencott, Esq. of Springfield aforesaid, Abraham Stockton and Chas. Ellis, both of the city of Burlington, commissioners, to divide the said tract into six equal shares or parts, and unless proper objections are stated to me on the 21st day of Nov. next, at my office in the city of Burlington at ten o'clok in the morning of that day, the said Job Lippencott, Abraham Stockton and Charles Ellis, will then be appointed the Commissioners to make petition of the said tract of land, pursuant to an act, entitled, "an act for the more easy petition of lands held by Co-partners, joint tenants, and tenants in common" passed the eleventh day of November in the year of our Lord 1789—Given under my hand the 30th day of August A. HAMBURGH, July 23.

By a particular opportunity we have received letters from Copenhagen, of the 19th inst. which mention that the preceding day 20 English ships of the line of 64 and 74 guns, arrived at Elsineur; they are to go to Revel in order to take Russian troops on board.

From Stockholm we hear that the Duke of East Gothia, who was dangerously ill, is perfectly recovered.

It is reported here that the king of Prussia means to extend the line of demarcation.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 25.

At the recapture of Jaffa (formely called Joppa) a number of French officers fell into the hands of Ghezar Pacha and commodore sir Sidney Smith. Buonapante, who has but few troops left, is closely pursued by them, and it is expected that the war against him will soon be at an end.

It is this day reported here, that the Egyptian Pacha Murat Bey, has entered Cairo.

On the 22d inst. two Russian ships of line arrived here; they are looked upon as the van of the Russian fleet, which is expected from the Black Sea with troops.

A French corps posted on the mountain called the little St. Benchard, attempted yesterday to surprise the corps under the command of the Prince de Rohan; but they were repulsed with the loss of some hundred killed, wounded and taken prisoners. LONDON, July 30.

French counter-revolutionary plan.

The Mercury of Europe (Hamburgh paper) under the head of Paris, has an article bearing the followivg title, and which is said to be in general circulation through France:

"PROPOSITIONS

Which are already popular, and are daily becoming more and more so, here;

"1. The re-establishment of monarchy in France, on rational terms.

"2. The king shall grant a general amnesty, without any exceptions or exemptions whatever.

"3. Property which, according to the existing laws of the Republic, has been legally acquired, and is now legally held, shall be respected as legal property.

"4. Such of the army who shall join the standard of the King, shall be continued in their respective ranks, advancements, and pay.

"4. The king shall renounce all claim on territorial acquisitions of the republic; and the king as well as the powers at war with the republic, shall solemly guarantee the integrity of ancient France, and shall proclaim a general peace.

"6. Every species of vassalage, tithes, corvees, soccage, or bound service, and all other contributions in kind, shall be forever abolished.

"7. The impositions or revenues necessary for maintaining the government, shall be raised upon the produce of the fixed and moveable property of the state, without any exceptions or exemptions whatever.

"8. The French people shall all be governed by the same publicly defined and determined laws, both civil and municipal.

"9. Honesty and capacity shall be the criterion whereby the public functions in the state shall be filled.

"10. When these preliminaries are agreed upon the king shall invite the French nation to elect or nominate, from among their sage and discreet men, a representative body, to meet the king at such part or place, in ancient France, as the king may point out, there to consult with him and assist him with their wisdom; to arrange, draw up, and settle a national code or charter, whereby the French people shall be governed, upon the before stated principles.

"The members of the present republican government, or other functionaries of the Republic, being otherwise qualified, shall be eligible to sit in the representative body."

EDINBURGH, July 31.

A letter from a gentleman in Lerwich to his friend in Leith, of date 25th July, says, "You will have heard of the capture of the Elizabeth and another vessel from Leith to Lerwick, which occasion a very great loss to every person in Lerwick. We have also lost in the same way, two vessels from Liverpool with salt for the fishery, which cannot now be replaced. There is only salt sufficient for the week, and if no supply arrives, the fishing for the subsequent weeks will be lost. The crop is far on here, and the fishing more abundant. We have seen French prisoners here; five were taken in a ship from Hamburgh, bound to Liverpool; she had been taken by a privateer who put six men on board to navigate her to Bergen, and when within 15 leagues of that port, the mate, and a black man who had been left on board, attacked the six Frenchmen, and after killing the prize-master, and wounding one of the prisoners now here, in a combat which lasted 20 minutes, the Frenchmen surrendered to these two men, who steered immediately for this island; the mate's name is Clarkson, and ship's name Latona of Liverpool."

A shower of herrings! On the 20th instant, a great quantity of young herrings fell, during a very heavy shower of rain, in a field near Whithorn, about three miles from the sea! It is supposed they were taken up by a water spout!

To the ELECTORS of the City and County of Philadelphia

ENCOURAGED by my friends, and grateful for your favours last year, when you placed me within five votes of the fortunate candidate, I take the liberty of again offering myself as County Commissioner.

THE Court for the appointment of Guardians of the Poor for the ensuing year, met this day according to law, at the City Hall, in the city of Philadelphia, but a sufficient number of county magistrates not appearing, and the new members of the Board of Guardians returned to serve, not being present, the Mayor, Aldermen and Justice Wheeler, adjourned the Court to the Almshouse, in the city of Philadelphia, at eleven o'clock the same day; when being assembled, together with ten members of the old Board of Guardians, including four members of the old Board of Managers, of the Alms-house, and none of the new members appearing, it was thought adviseable to adjourn the Court to Monday the eleventh day of November next ensuing, then to meet at the City Hall, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to which time and place the said Court is adjourned, of which all persons concerned are to take notice.

To BOTANISTS, GARDENERS and FLORISTS.

AND to all other ladies and gentlemen, curious in ornamental, rare exotic or foreign plants and flowers, cultivated in the green house, hot house, or stove, and in the open ground—A large and numerous variety of such rarities is now offered for sale, being the acquirement of many years earnest application, great assiduity, and considerable expence.

The present proprietor having, from the natural growth and successful increase of his plants, as well as from frequent other acquirements and additions to his collection, so far increased it as to render the allotted apartments not sufficiently large and commodious, is induced to make this offer, or sacrifice. After reserving a general and suitable stock, he has to spare a well assorted and great variety of those things, comprising a beautiful collection, sufficient to decorate, furnish, and ornament a spacious or handsome green-house AT ONCE. The whole collection, for that department, will be sold on very moderate and easy terms; or the proprietor may be induced to divide it into two equal lots; but he does not on any account intend to allow them to be selected or culled out by separately selling single plants or small lots in any thing like a retail way.

The whole is a truly valuable collection, such as is very rarely to be met with for sale on this side the Atlantic—indeed a moiety of them would comprise a very desirable and extensive variety, consisting of many or most of the tropical fruits, and other rare and curious finely ornamental trees, shrubs, and plants, with a numerous and abundant assortment of choice bulbous, tuberous, and fibrous rooted flowering and ornamental plants in mixtures; all of good or superior kinds, as may be seen by the catalogues For which, and for any further necessary information, please to apply to John Cunnings, at the Alms-house, Messrs. David and Cuthbert Landrith, gardeners and nursery-men, in in High-street, above Twelfth-street, Philadelphia, Mr. William Booth, in the same line of business, Baltimore, or Mr David Williamson, Greenwich-street, New-York.

N. B. It is now a good time and proper season to build a green-house, and to remove plants.

One Thousand Five Hundred

DOLLARS

WAS delivered to the POSTMASTER here, in the POST-OFFICE, on the evening of Tuesday the 27th ult. in a LETTER directed to Mr. John Mills, Merchant, BALTIMORE, containing two ALEXANDRIA BANK NOTES, No. 4320, in favour of William Taylor, and dated 30th April, 1798, for ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS, and No. 4522, in favour of John P. Pleasants, and dated the 10th of December, 1798, for FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS, which letter has been SUPPRESSED in a POST-OFFICE, and the BANK NOTES taken out——as the PUBLIC MAIL was not STOPPED, MOLESTED, or ROBBED.

Bankers and merchants are particularly requested to watch the circulation of said notes, and stop them; and any person giving such information as will lead us to our money, shall have FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS reward.

SPECULATION.

TO BE SOLD,

AT Public Vendue, on Monday the 23d of September next, at 2 o'clock, P. M. at the house of the Subscriber, living in the town of New-Castle, State of Delaware, a number of valuable suitable for building on, being the South square of the flourishing town of New-Castle aforesaid, distant from Philadelphia thirty-three miles.

This valuable property is highly capable of improvement, being immediately on the river Delaware, having a number of wharf lots on it; and from the depth of the water (earth and materials for wharfing being easily procured) there is no doubt but wharves would bring a handsome interest.

This property consists of five acres more or less, in one body; lays high, and is divided into lots to suit every description of persons.—New-Castle is one of the most healthy and flourishing towns on the continent; and from the increase of trade it has raised property to four times the value it was seven years past.—The number of vessels bound out and in, which stop for supplies of stock, &c. &c. and the whole carriage of goods between Philadelphia and Baltimore, is now through this place. The packets and stages from the aforesaid cities, &c. &c. make it very lively: there is not, at this time, one house to be rented in the place; and the number of applications for houses make it an object for persons to improve. There are a number of elegant and useful buildings now going on, a Public Academy and several private Schools. The malignant Fever has never made any progress, and the Ague scarcely known; the number of children in this place is a convincing proof of the healthiness of it. The prospect of the river Delaware, up and down is delightful; as far as the eye can distinguish you may view the vessels in different attitudes There is reason to suppose that public piers for the Navy will be built here, as vessels can sail from this place when the river is fast at Philadelphia.

The conditions of sale will be easy and made known on the day of sale. Places of public worship, market and mills are very contiguous

JOHN DARRAGH.

N. B.—A plat of the above will be exhibited any time previous, as well as on the day of sale.

PRESENT,

Charles Swift,	Jacob Greble,
William Preston,	William Holdernesse,
Luke W. Morris,	Samuel Gatliff,
Charles Pleasants,	Matthew Vanduzen,
Geraldus Stockdale,	James Engle.

Whereas the distressed situation of many of the inhabitants of the city of Philadelphia arising from the present calamity, requires immediate relief; and whereas, from the general absence of the freeholders, and other taxable inhabitants, it has become impracticable to continue the collection of the taxes appropriated for the support of the poor.

Therefore resolved, That Samuel Gatliff and Charles Pleasants shall be a committee from this Board, to negociate a loan from either of the Banks in this city, amounting to ten thousand dollars, five thousand of which to be advanced immediately, and the other five thousand, when in the opinion of this Board it shall become necessary.

Resolved. That such part of the buildings at Masters' Place, as belong to the Guardians of the Poor, be appropropriated for the reception of such children, as may become orphans in consequence of the present calamity, and that Luke W. Morris be appointed to procure Nurses, and other proper attendants for them, and generally to superintend that part of the Encampment.

Resolved, That William Holdernesse, William Preston, James Engle, and Matthew Vanduzen, Guardians of the Poor, in conjunction with Dr. Samuel P. Griffitts, John Evans, Thomas Harrison and John James; shall be a committee for granting relief to the poor and distressed inhabitants of the city of Philadelpha, the District of Southwark, and the Northern-Liberties, which committee shall keep an account of the persons relieved, and the sums expended; having also power to appoint such persons as they may deem qualified to assist in visiting all and every house in which sick or distressed persons are resident, in order that full and effectual relief may be afforded.

Resolved, That Luke W. Morris be the Treasurer of the above committee, and that the money which may be borrowed from the Banks, agreeably to a resolution of this day, be lodged in his hands to defray the expences of the above committee, and such as may be incured in maintaining the orphan children at Masters' Place. d1w.

LITERARY VANITY.

At a late sitting of the National Institute in Paris, citizen Mercier, author of the "Picture of Paris, in the year 2440," mounted the tribune to read a fragment upon Cato of Utica. The length of this morceau, which many members of the institute perceived to have been greatly augmented since it had been read to them in private, the smothered voice of the orator, the tardiness of his utterance, and the impossibility of hearing him at the distant parts of the hall, produced a most marked impatience both on the part of the assembly, and of the members of the institute. The president found it necessary to invite the citizen Mercier to cede his place and his turn to the citizen Lebrun, who would recite a most beautiful ode on the existing circumstances. The author of the long fragment, feeling his vanity wounded, proved refractory, resisted the wishes of the president and the auditory, and after a scene, which the editor declares to have been truly scandalous, the president dissolved this College of Savans, in the midst of the most lively disorder.

The French National Institute offer a Prize Medal of the weight of Five Hectogrammes, to the author of the best Ode, Poem, or Discourse in verse, upon the Foundation of the French Republic. Any gentleman of a Poetical turn, who is inclined so write acceptably on this subject, and to put five Hectogrammes in his waistcoat pocket, may have an opportunity of forwarding his lucubration through the medium of the Gazette of the United States, which, Mr. Barlow says, is read in Paris every day.

The Citizen REY, ex agent diplomatique, in the Council of Five Hundred, on the 15th July, "denounced the ex directors as the authors of the most dangerous conspiracy which had ever been blown up against the Republic. He accused them of having forced the Turks and the Americans to declare war against us, and he demanded that they be brought to judgment for it." Sent to the Committee of Five. The Turks and the Americans!" Ubi lapsi! quid fecimus!

This citizen ex-agent diplomatique will find himself in the vocative, should he urge this prosecution much farther. He is seizing the Five Headed Monster by his Proboscis, with one flirt of which he will soon teach Mr. ex-agent Rey the old lesson, noli me tangere.

There seems to be but one way of pushing men from their stools in France, and that is, by undermining and fairly blowing them up. They fall to the ground crippled and shattered in every limb, no longer objects but of contempt to their enemies. Every fellow that has set himself about a change, otherwise than in this thoroughgoing manner, has turned out, Sutor ultra crepidam.

As mankind have not grown wiser, nor the world honester, than we were wont to find them, malgrè all the speculations of dreamers, whosoever proceeds on the belief that they have, is sure to become an evidence of one fact, and a prey to the other.

Peace on Earth, and good will to Men, are not to be brought about by a thirst for repose, arising from cowardice or indolence, or an ardent pursuit of traffic, founded in sordid avarice.

The government which bears on its front "Peace to all Men." is sure to be at peace with no man. The motto of a wise government would be "nemo me impune lacesset."

At Paris, lately, in the garden of the Thuilleries, a ferment took place amongst the Sovereign people, in the course of which some fellows cried out Vive le Roi! A poor newsmonger of the name of Brosselard, was arrested and imprisoned on suspicion of having been one of these. He has published a justification of himself against the charge, wherein he observes that two men near him had occasioned his arrest, one of whom having cried fife te Roi, he concludes to have been a Dutchman; the other, who cried goddam vive le roi, an Englishman.

The Executive Directory has ordained that the artist who obtained the first prize of painting at the last meeting of the National Institute, shall take for the subject of his next picture, which must be delivered to the Government, the assassination of the French Ministers Plenipotentiary by the Austrian troops. The same subject shall also be engraved by the artist who obtained a prize for Engraving.

The citizen Girandolet having first obtained the two first prizes of painting, finds himself charged with the execution of this picture. The eminent talents of that artist are known: we may be sure that he will fulfil worthily the honorable task which is confided to him

It will not be after this picture that the engraving will be done: the citizen Vernet has been charged to compose a design on the subject. Nobody could better designate those assassin hussars who attacked the carriages. Vernet has made himself a great reputation by the almost inimitable manner in which he has drawn his troopers, his horses, &c.

Berwick, who obtained the first of the prizes of engraving, will engrave the design of Vernet. It is to him that we owe the fine print of the education of Achilles.

Thus the memory of this crime, adds the Paris Editor, will not perish. All the arts will contribute in perpetuating even to ages to come, the horror which it has caused us to undergo.

And of all these, none will so largely contribute as the art of lying. This famous print should have a companion; and I know of none more fit, than that of the massacre of Bonnier and Roberjot, by Jean Debry.

COMMUNICATION.

ON you, Gentlemen Managers and Directors of the Polls at the ensuing election, lays an important charge to fulfil. Its then a duty you owe your country, that the most severe scrutiny should mark all your examinations, with respect to the right of the person who presents his vote, whether he is entitled to it.

This hint I have been induced to throw out from an idea that at some former periods, your polls were not sufficiently rigid; and as violence is I believe much the wish of, and not only that but the aim of the party infamously opposed to their country, I warn you to be on your guard.

A Friend to good Order and Justice.

The following are the candidates who will be supported by the friends of government, for the several offices prefixed to their names:

The life of a Commonwealth, said Maximilian Robespierre, is Public Virtue. Make M'Kean governor, Dallas chief-justice, Tench Coxe Secretary, &c, &c. and where would be a more lively Commonwealth than ours.

The last sentence of the citizen Dallas's last Philippic, presents a most happy instance of what is denominated by Longinus, "a conspiracy between the dignity of harmony and beautiful sublimity." Here it is:—"The friends of the republican candidate would ill deserve the prospect of success, which daily brightens and expands, could they be ensnared by the cabals of faction, or terrified by the spectres of detraction."

The citizen Dallas, when he perceives that Mr. Ross is elected by a majority of five or six thousand, in spite of the cabals of faction and the spectres of detraction, will, if he is wise, cry out, with his accustomed non-chalance, obe! jam satis est.—After which, he may sing in good Italian, the retiring distich of the ancient Pistol—

Si Fortuna me tormenta,
Spero mi contenta.

It is palpable, that most of the adherents of Mr. M'Kean, look up to his election as a means of restoring their ruined fortunes.—Like the bladder-man, in the Arabian Nights, he is to pour his wine of consolation down their throats; but like the miserable dupes of the man of bladders, on awaking from intoxication, they will find their prize wrested from them.

The life and adventures of that once singular man, Mr. Facing Bothways, as recorded by the immortal Bunyan, would be well worth publication in a separate volume, at the present time. The title of the episode might be "Living characters drawn by the dead."

BALTIMORE, September 30.

The city was yesterday alarmed with a fire, which broke out between 4 and five o'clock, P. M. in a carpenter's shop belonging to Mr. M'Conky, on Windmill hill, at the corner of High street and Pratt-street continued. Never was destruction more rapid—in about 15 minutes the shop wherein it caught, and three adjoining houses (frames) were inveloped in flames, and consumed. The wind was strong at N. E. and as the greater number, as is too commonly the case, ran without buckets, Mr. Hannan's and a number of other houses, were saved with the greatest difficulty. The fire is said to have been occasioned by a segar.

From the following it appears that a violent epidemic is raging in Charleston

CHARLESTON, September 16.

We understand that his excellency governor Rutledge, has written to major Freeman commanding the federal troops stationed in the different garrisons in this harbor, to recommend to the captains of vessels arriving from Europe, as well as from the different ports in the United States, to remain at anchor in the roads until the epidemic disease which now prevails in this city, and which has proved so fatal to strangers, shall subside.

We also learn, the lazaretto will be fitted up for the reception of the crews of the vessels.

BOSTON, September 26.
FROM EUROPE.

Captain Trott, in the ship Packet, arrived here yesterday from Liverpool, in 40 days. The London papers received by this vessel are to Aug. 12, which, altho' seventeen days later than before received in this town, furnish us with no events of "great pith and moment." Of the grand fleets recently from the Mediterranean, beyond what we have before received in America; but one article is traced, that the combined fleets were seen on the 1st Aug. at the entrance of the Bay of Biscay; and that the English fleet under Lord Keith, was still augmenting, and pursuing them.

A decisive victory has been gained over Tippoo in the East-Indies.—Further official confirmation of the flight of Buonaparte from before Acre, have been received, stating that he attacked the place eleven times over the dead bodies of his unfortunate countrymen, in the last of which he was badly wounded—Lord Nelson's fleet with 12,000 troops on board, was off Genoa—Naples in possession of the royal troops—Mantua and Alessandria closely besieged with such immense bodies of troops as to promise the capitulation of both places in a short time. Genoa on the point of being besieged. The Austrian forces in Switzerland, under the Archduke Charles, being much inferior in numbers to the Republicans under General Massena, had retrogaded a few leagues towards the Rhine, but had not been followed; he was waiting for the reinforcement of Austrio-Russians on the march to join him In France the Directory, the Elders, the Council of Five Hundred, and the Club at the Menage, assume, alternately, the privilege of dictating public opinion, each is afraid of the other, they all deceive and are deceived—so stands the blest republic, tho' its administration talk of raising conscripts to the amount of 300,000 men. The secret expedition from England was on the eve of its commencement; an embargo was laid on all vessels in the channel on the 7th August, to continue till the sailing of the armament, which will consist, besides the 35,000 English troops, of 45,000 Russians, and 12,000 Germans; the British officers are, Field Marshal Duke of York, Generals Knox, Moore, Doyley, Lord Pager, and Duke of Somerset.

LONDON, August 10.

Yesterday a court of Directors was held at the East India House, for the purpose of reading overland dispatches, confirming the account of the victory over Tippoo, on the 5th of March, at Seederfere: and also the recapture of the Otterly by the Nonsuch.

Advices from Constantinople, dated June 25, confirm the flight of Buonaparte from Acre, and state that the French General was mortally wounded. Above 1000 French were found dead in the camp before Acre

Captain Davis, aid de camp to Mornington, who had volunteered his services fell very early in the action between La Sybille, and La Forte, Captain Cook is stated to be severely wounded. Our loss was three killed and nineteen wounded.

This morning the Hamburgh mail due on Wednesday last reached town. It brings an account of the evacuatinn of Tuscany by the French, in the night between the 16th and 17 ult. they having left behind them all heavy ordinance and magazines.

The Vienna Court Gazette of the 24th ult. states the reported junction of the remains of Macdonalds defeated army with Moreau, in the environs of Genoa.

The siege of Mantua is pushed with great vigor by General Kray, and the commandant had been summoned to surrender, which, however, he had refused. As the fire of the besiegers however had, from their near approach to the garrison, become extremely effective, there is a prospect of the speedy surrender of that important place.

This mail has brought us the particulars of the evacuation of Leghorn by the French. The French minister who fled by sea in an American vessel, was taken by one of our cruizers.

AT a meeting of the visitors and governors of St. John's college in the State of Maryland, on the 13th day of July 1799,

Resolved, That on the first day of October next, this board will proceed to elect a Professor of English and Grammar, who shall receive, for his services, at the rate of £200 per annum, to be paid quarterly; and that public notice thereof be given, &c. &c,

Test, A. C. HANSON.

N. B. The office aforesaid hath just become vacant, by the resignation of a gentleman, whose affairs require, the immediate undertaking of a voyage by sea.

It is the duty of the said Professor (to whom is allowed an assistant) to teach the English language grammatically, and to prepare students for a superior school, by teaching them the Latin grammar the Vocabulary, and Cordery. Writing is to be taught to all his scholars at stated hours; and to those students who are not destined for the superior school, are to be taught, at the discretion of their parents, or guardians, Arithmetic, and other branches of science usually taught in English schools—A complete knowledge then of Latin, Arithmetic, &c. is considered indispensible in the professor; and it is expected, that candidates who are not known to the Board, will submit to an examination, as well as produce satisfactory testimonials of their good morals, and fair characters.

The Printers within the United States are requested to insert in their papers the foregoing resolution and remarks, and to repeat the publication, as often as convenience will admit, until the 20th day of September next.

To the Holders of MILITARY LAND WARRANTS.

THE Subscriber having lately returned from viewing the land, surveyed and appropriated to satisfy the land warrants, issued by the secretary at war, to the officers and soldiers of the late continental army; and having made arrangements with Mr. James Johnson, of Chester county, Pennsylvania, who he left on the land, and who with the assistance of an intelligent inhabitant of that county, will spend five months in exploring the different sections. He will take regular notes, descriptive of the soil, situation, and natural advantages attached to each section in the whole survey—which notes will be placed in the hands of the subscriber previous to the period for locating, thereby enabling him to make the most advantageous locations the priority will admit.

He offers his service to the holders of land warrants of the above description, throughout the United States, to receive their warrants, class them, (as no less quantity than 4000 acres will be registerd at the office of the treasury) have them registered agreeable to law, and attend to make the location at the the time appointed in February next.

For transacting the business, one tenth part of the land specified in the warrants will be required, and no other charge, except the postage of letters. All warrants forwarded and letters addressed to the subscriber, at No. 3, Penn-street, Philadelphia, will receive immediate attention.

By an American Gentleman.

[In introducing this celebrated work to the Gentlemen and Ladies of America, I have endeavored to give it a dress proportioned to its distinguished merit, and to the taste of those for whose amusement and delight it is intended. No expence has been spared in the publication; and I flatter myself that the work does not yield, either in paper or print, to any one ever published in America—This edition has an advantage over some former ones, as it contains by way of notes, the minor productions of the author; and, it has an advantage over every other edition, in the Poetical Epistle, which is prefixed to it, and which must be extremely gratifying to every lover of literature in this country, as it is a proof that there are Americans who have the taste to admire, the justice to applaud, and the talents to rival the Geniuses of other nations.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are lost in darkness and obscurity, owing to a carelessness, in the succeeding generation, to preserve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in those rude ages, being called off from their domestic concerns, to engage in wars and conquest. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been transmitted to our days? Time, that destroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almost inestimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their assistance in transmitting to posterity the labours of their ancestors—founders of the Columbian nation.

 The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will show the support it has already acquired:

"The MEMORIAL of the Subscribers, Citizens, &c. of Philadelphia,

"Respectfully sheweth,

"That having, in our respective avocations, frequent occasions to recur to the Journals of Congress, we experience inconvenience by the scarcity of them: That we understand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed prosecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, respectfully solicit, as the publication is necessary to be disseminated among public bodies, that Congress will, in their wisdom render him such additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, so that your Memorialists may be enabled to purchase copies of that record for themselves.

The Swift-Sure,

A NEW LINE OF STAGES,
NOW RUNNING BETWEEN
PHILADELPHIA & NEW-YORK,
By the short and pleasant road of Bustleton, Newtown, Scotch Plains, Springfield and Newark.

THE excellence of this road, the populousness of the country through which it passes, with sundry other advantages, which render it so far preferable to the Old Road through Bristol, Brunswick, &c. long ago suggested the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough Fare from Philadelphia to New York. During the present year, a minute survey of it has been taken, and its superiority over the Old Road, both in winter and summer, has been clearly ascertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the crossing is performed with great safety and in less than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is several miles shorter than the old road, but this is amongst the least of its advantages, because daily experience proves to us, that dispatch as well as comfort in travelling principally depend on the goodness of the road and the levelness of the country, and, in these respects, the New Road is, beyond all comparison, the best. It presents none of those rocky hills, which render the Old Road so fatiguing between the Delaware and Newark. The soil, too, for the greater part, is such as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little dust in summer, which circumstance, added to the beauty of the country, and a considerable proportion of shade, must always render travelling in the latter season peculiarly agreeable.

The Swift Sure starts from PHILADELPHIA, at 6 o'clock every morning (Sundays excepted) from the GREEN TREE, opposite the Lutheran Church, North Fourth street. It goes through Frankford to Bustleton, where it stops to Breakfast; from Bustletown it goes through Newtown to Penny-town to dinner; from Penny town through Hopewell, Millstone, Bound-brook, Quibbletown and Plainfield to Scotch Plains to lodge. The next morning it stops at Springfield to breakfast, from whence it goes through Newark and arrives at New-York at noon.

From NEW-YORK it starts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon (from Paulus Hook) and arrives at Philadelphia the next evening. For seats at New-York, application may be made to Edward Bardin, Old Coffee house, to A. Mathieu, corner of Nassau and John streets, to B. Many, no. 48, Courtlandt, corner of Greenwich street, and to Michael Little, at his hotel, no. 42, Broad street.

Fare for passengers, Five Dollars.
Way passengers 6 Cents per Mile.

Each passenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free; but all other baggage, taken on by a passenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With respect to packages sent on without passengers, the proprietors presume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of stages, they think must meet with general approbation. They pledge themselves to make good every package on the following conditions. The person who delivers the package at the office shall see it entered in the stage-book, for which entry he shall pay 6 cents; he will then state the value of the package, and pay (exclusive of the carriage) one per cent. on the value, as insurance, and for which he will receive a receipt. Thus, for instance, if he estimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent, and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar insurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value.

Very few persons it is presumed, will dislike this regulation; it will however, be optionable with every one to avail himself of this security or not. But the proprietors think it right to state very explicitly, that they will be responsible for the safe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an insurance receipt cannot be produced.

In the distribution of the route, the greatest care has been taken to fix on such places and taverns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the passengers at the most reasonable rates. The stages are well equipped furnished with fleet and steady horses, and committed to the care of intelligent sober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themselves live at the different towns and villages where the stages will stop, so that the conduct of the persons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care also to see that the passengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no sort of chicanery or insolence is practised upon them; in short, they have spared neither pains nor expence to render the SWIFT-SURE the very best line of stages in America.

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every passenger has found the road to surpass very far all that has been said of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviou, of their drivers, and the treatment at Taverns spoken of with the highest satisfaction.
